

Diwali celebrations illuminate NIT Srinagar campus

Students participate in Rangoli competitions

Srinagar, Nov 14: The Diwali celebration at NIT Srinagar saw active student participation in Rangoli competitions, adding a creative and colorful dimension to the festivities.

Intricate and vibrant Rangoli designs adorned the pathways, showcasing the artistic talents of the students and contributing to the overall visual splendor of the campus.

As part of the celebration, Director Prof. (Dr) Sudhakar Yedla took the time to inspect the Rangoli creations, appreciating the students' artistic efforts.

“This gesture not only recognized the students' talents but also reinforced a sense of encouragement and appreciation from the institution's leadership,” he said.

Director's engagement in the festivities further highlighted the inclusive and participatory nature of the celebration at NIT Srinagar.

The Rangoli competition, with its kaleidoscope of colors and intricate patterns, served as a platform for students to express their creativity and cultural aesthetics.

It added an extra layer of enthusiasm to the Diwali celebration, fostering a spirit of friendly competition and collaboration among the student community.

Overall, the inclusion of Rangoli competitions, along with the Director's involvement, contributed to making the Diwali celebration at NIT Srinagar a holistic and engaging experience for everyone involved.

The event not only celebrated the traditions associated with Diwali but also provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and receive recognition from the academic leadership.

Photo Gallery

HAPPY
DIWALI

